

If we could tell you how to make more than $100,000 selling life insurance this year, would you be interested?

When you hear of other life insurance agents who make more than $100,000 a year selling life insurance, do you ever wonder how? Do you ever wonder if they have an army of staff taking care of that boring and time consuming paperwork? Or maybe, they have a really hot area that responds well to those fliers and cold calls eating up so much of your valuable time? Of course, you could work for one of those big agencies, but you would end up losing much of your commissions and hard work in the process. So, what's the secret to making more than $100,000 a year selling life insurance?

The secret is very simple: Delsur Communications!

Delsur Communications offers you the one thing that you can't buy: more field time with your customers doing what you do best—selling life insurance! At Delsur, we understand the road blocks that keep you from maximizing your time. We can help you manage every facet of your business from:

- Streamlining office work by freeing you from copying and following up on paperwork
- Providing hot leads ready to talk to you about life insurance
- Splitting the cost of expense of fliers
- Top level Commissions

With every step, Delsur can help you by taking the boring paperwork off of your hands giving you more free time to follow up on hot leads and responses, provided by us, to increase your field time and pay rate.

It's not a matter of working harder—it's a matter of working smarter with Delsur Communications! Call us today to find out how.