

My best friend is a Mortgage Broker!

In today's constantly changing world, nothing stands as solid as a best friend who you can count on in any situation. When you need advice, your best friend is ready with a hot cup of coffee and unlimited time to listen. When you need to borrow tools, there is your best friend ready to hand over their most prized possession for "as long as you need it" and even offer to help you fix the problems that you had faced alone not so long ago. Wouldn't it be ideal if your best friend was an ALT-A guru focused providing you with the best advice and tools available in the Mortgage industry to make your job as easy and efficient as possible? YOU have a best friend in PAMCO!

PAMCO is your best friend dedicated to customer service and supplying you with the tools you need to conduct business. Want to call your Underwriters directly? Want Coordinators focused on preparing your loans, confirming your fees, and making sure your paperwork gets to exactly the right place at the right time? Want access to the Managers and Vice President assigned to your accounts? Want fabulous prices at locked in rates without sacrificing any of these services? Do you want extra services like a "Scenario Desk" to help you place a loan in the best program and a "Lock Desk" to lock in your pricing? Done! You need a best friend who will use their expertise and impeccable customer service to help you grow and look out for your interests. It's like your best friend standing by with advice and tools where you need a best friend most: The Mortgage Industry! All you have to do is call ~ YOU have a best friend in PAMCO!